

VALUATION REPORT

BREGUET TRADITION WATCH

Date of purchase: 01/10/2026

Despite a visual departure from Breguet's guilloche dial design language revived by Daniel Roth in the 1970s and '80s, Breguet's Tradition collection offers another call back to the work of its namesake. First launched in 2005 with the reference 7027, the Tradition honors Abraham-Louis Breguet's 'souscription' watches, but inverts their design to showcase the usually hidden movement architecture on the dial side of the watch. This unique layout offers the wearer the same perspective that a watchmaker would have while working on the movement's creation.

This reference 7057 maintains the layout of the original Tradition 7027, with the time displayed on a small off-center subdial perched atop the barrel, balance wheel, and mainspring, but upsizes the watch to a more modern 40mm case diameter.
